President Tubman is sitting in the Presidential Chair (I seated him this way as a symbol) which is used during the inauguration. General notes regarding Tubman - all government offices, departments etc., are patterned and named after their American equivalents. Even the money is actual American Currency. It is the official currency of Liberia.

2902							A: The colorful toga-like robe is the national form of dress, colorful but also practical, traditional for the past several centuries. Originally the material was made in Ghana or Gold Coast, now printed in England and imported. There is one other form of robe that is worn, made in long strips and sewn together. This is generally found only among the wealthy; because of its cost. It is still being produced in Ghana. Such a robe is being worn by Prime Minister N'Krumah in his portrait. Also visible are many Arab-like robes worn by the Negro African in Ghana as well as in other West African countries. The northern areas are almost entirely Muslim (common phraseology is Moslem or Muhammedan). Also photographs of man in red sweater standing behind a table full of bottles. he is an herbalist named Lewis Barbartuday who concocts and mixes his own herbs or medicines and puts them in old liquor or anything available bottles, a remainder of the old forms of medicine men. Among these bottles is a framed license or clip testifying to his ability This was drawn up and signed by Kah Essando, chief carpenter. Among the pottery in the market place in the background can be seen a man using a large mortar and pestle. he is pounding dry casavar. This is a plant or root, known under different names throughout Africa, which is the basis of the diet. When dried it looks like plaster parts broken into chunks. It is prepared many ways, but most frequently it is pounded into a flour-like substance that can be cooked like pudding, etc.
2903							B: Outside Ghana and also other parts of West Africa, most of the transportation is informally organized by individual buses, generally individually owned, meeting in car parks and/or driving along vaguely set routes and announcing their final destinations by shouts or by signs so that the prospective riders would know which ones to take. Generally these are overcrowded. They are inevitably overloaded to a dangerous point, and the car in addition to its passengers may also carry many wicker baskets, chickens, goats, loads of wood, or anything else that any one wishes to ship or to carry. Frequently they are decorated and always carry slogans either in the local language or in English. These slogans fascinated me, and I photographed a number of them. In addition to the signs which were photographed, others noted were: "Aim High, Backward Never," "Upward and Onward," "God is Love," "Remember," and "Let Them say."
2904							C: Modern aspects of Accra photographed were the UTC Department Store; also the large white building, the Ambassador Hotel, the number one hotel of all of West Africa, fairly luxurious, excellent cuisine, air-conditioned individual rooms, built by the English.
2905							D: Fishing beach near Monrovia given incorrect number by error. Native fisherman preparing nets.

2907							The age old customs of unloading large boats anchored in the bay by the use of oar powered small craft. Bags of cement are being unloaded in this particular group of pictures from one of the freighters anchored in the background. Considerable loss occurred during this operation. This loss I understand is common. A new and modern port neighboring the ships to tie up for more efficient unloading is being considered just north of Accra.

2910							This area has always been like a separate tribal section and was common throughout Africa in the old days, a separate kingdom with its own culture, etc. In the African primitive arts it has its own style known especially for its gold weights, its casting (of tiny bronze and geometric patterns for the weighing of gold) carved wooden fertility dolls, some masks, figures, etc. This area in modern times is the political center of operation of N'Krumah and his party.

2919	10/20/1958	Senya Beraku (Ghana)				Ghana, Africa	October 10 - December 10, 1958 castle & fishing town & beach  The village takes its name from the castle. This is approximately 20 miles west of Accra on the Gulf of Guinea, one of the most picturesque and romantic spots in all Africa. Today, it is fitted out in a rough but comfortable manner by the government for the convenience of travelers and visitors if they desire to stay for the day or overnight. A tight circle of boats taken where the completely nude Guinea fisherman lay upon the beach was to the right or west of the castle and the long palm-lined beach photographed longview lays to the east of the castle and is the main landing point for the fishermen who come in at the end of the day with their primitive sails which are not adaptable for tacking. Upon coming within 100 yards or so of the beach, the sail and the mast are dropped and boats come in on the crest of the waves being met by their wives and children who assist them in unloading their catch. There are views in and on and from the castle which also include the fishing port on the top of the hill with people going back and forth on the shore and also views of the main street of the town with buildings in various forms of use and disintegration.	2874	Holiday Magazine			c	c

This was the gathering of the local chiefs for this festival, an engraved invitation affair attended by many of the diplomatic corps for which a special pavilion was built. Of particular interest outside of the very colorful scenes is the manner in which the local chiefs are being borne in litters with the colorful umbrellas held before them. Although this is not an Ashnti area, the Ashnti have the identical manner of carrying their leaders and for centuries have portrayed them in their bronze castings. The older chief photographed with a gold type crown is Chief W.A. Bah-Ngwah IV from Dorma Male. Close-ups of the chief sitting down surrounded by his men is chief Teeyzogli Piengwa (Post Office Box 4 Odumase).	2875	Holiday Magazine			c	c

This is set up so that the Congoese of sufficient education to be of service in the medical profession could attain this status when they did not have sufficient educational requirements to get a full medical degree. Congoese doctors may be rare or non-existent (I do not have any figures). This man graduated from the School for Medical Assistants in Leopoldville in 1957. He is now in charge of the dispensary for the school. He had four years of study, then two years of practice prior to today. medical assistants did the same kind of studies as doctors but do not attend a university and cannot call themselves doctors. N'Sonde came from the bascongo Tribe in Leopoldville province. His father was a peasant farmer. Most men who have gone through this school do so on scholarship, as N'Sonde did.	2876	Holiday Magazine

As a result, many of these villages are among the most primitive in all of Africa. Although Bapende and bakube villages may be adjoining at times, the two cultures are distinctively different in their art, origins are easily differentiated.	2879	Holiday Magazine			c	c

2936	11/5/1958	Bapende Country				Congo, Africa	October 10 - December 10, 1958 very primitive village  This is of the Baongo or Bawongo (probably same tribe with different spellings). A primitive village out of touch with even the missionaries, as modern medicine is unknown and living under similar conditions as centuries ago. Photographs show pictures of mother with breasts heavy with milk with dying infant on pallet with her. Infant a few days old, recently circumcised - circumcision and rest of body covered with flies. Villagers unable to relieve infant or mother in ignorance of modern medicine. Also views of raffia making. Also views photographed on ground of two fetishes outside of house. These are to ward off evils due to sickness of a woman inside the house. Also photograph of a fetish house with similar fetish receptacle on either side and a fetish figure before the hut with the hunter standing in front of this house. This is a hunter fetish house with offering to insure success of the village hunters. Many hunters with spears, bows, and arrows were seen in this area as the best and cheapest way of hunting; although the anchored rifle is not unknown here, few can afford or obtain the necessary gun powder.	2880	Holiday Magazine				c

They are called atta. In the congo it is known as peli-peli.  B: Shots taken on the Cata Bridge, the principle bridge linking Lagos to the mainland, cutting across the Abutroo market Place. 2989							The Prime Minister is photographed in front of the Federal House of Representatives in Lagos. Regarding the Prime Minister's name; Alhaji is a title indicating he has made his pilgrimage to Mecca, Abubakar is his given name, Tafawa - all northern names include this ( as "from the North"), Balewa indicates the village where he was born. The Prime Minister is from the north and is considered both by Nigerians and by Europeans to be an outstanding statesman, rather than a politician. He is of the Northern people's Congress Party but was unanimously appointed by all parties to be Prime Minister. He is the least colored in his viewpoint.

3015	12/2/1958	Tada bronzes				Africa	October 10 - December 10, 1958  The bronzes of Tada set villages as background and also b&w for ethnographical purposes. The Tada bronzes taken separately in black and white and the principle bronzes photographed with the tiny villages of Tada as a background. These bronzes were reported to have been brought to Tada from Ife (which is in southern Nigeria) in the middle of the 15th century by Tsoede or also known as Edegi, who fled (reasons not known, probably political and for his life) to this area. He was the son of a chief and took these bronzes with him and in this area established the Nupe dynasty. These bronzes probably had religious or good luck significance. There are some similar but not as great bronzes at Jebea Gunnu, means island. Additional information on these bronzes can be obtained. The seated figure of the Tada bronzes executed realistically bears a striking familiarity to the Ife bronzes, possibly a clue to the unraveling of the mystery of this great art. Tada is completely inaccessible, not even marked on the most detailed of maps. These bronzes have been kept by the town for 500 years as a symbol of good luck, and a number of years ago when the first time they reluctantly allowed them to be put on exhibition in western Nigeria, the crops failed for the first time, therefore will probably never be shown again. Probably no other pictures of this calibre exist. According to all records, I was the first American to visit Tada - I went with Mr. William Fagg of the British Museum on a journey taking a full day by dugout canoe through the marshlands, and Niger River. Europeans visit this town only at the rate of once or twice a year. Also photographed black and white details of bronzes, some in mud hut in which they are kept. These figures so photographed were forbidden out of this hut on that day.	2912	Holiday Magazine		b c	b c

3194	8/1/1959	SHIBOLETTE DE-HAN				Israel	22-years-old. 2 1/2 years in Army military theatre. 6th generation Sabra. Father member of KNESSET, RAMOND DE-HAN. While in Army parachuted four times for the experience. One year in Europe singing and appearing in Finnish, Dutch and English TV. Appeared in Paris in the Olympia theatre. Appears in theatre clubs. I would describe her as a new up and coming entertainer, only beginning to gain a reputation. Makes her own jewelry, as worn in the picture. Spent one year in HAR-EL kibbutz. Single. Turned down offer from representative of ED SULLIVAN to appear in America as inconvenient at time, though desires to appear in America. Name SHIBOLETTE means, "little grains of corn." Believes only one in Israel with name. Photograph from main hill in Jaffa overlooking mosques. Rubble from war damage with the city of Tel-Aviv in the background (14-16 Ossichkine St. Jerusalem)	3038	Holiday Magazine		c		c
3195	8/1/1959	Dayan, Moshe	politician			Israel	Former chief of staff, Israeli Army. Legendary figure, lost his eye fighting for the British during World War II. For details check either Israeli Embassy or consulate or best Mr. Yohana Boehm, Israeli Government Tourist office, 574 Fifth Avenue, NYC 5-2750. Photograph taken at DAYAN'S home ZAHALA RAMAT, a suburb of Tel-Aviv. A professional soldier, he is an amateur archeologist and his backyard where photograph is taken is full of Roman columns, pillars, caps and remains from other periods which he has personally dug up. At the present he is being groomed for office via running for KNESSET next November and spends his time now traveling the country making personal appearances, speeches, writing articles, etc.	3039	Holiday Magazine		b
3196	8/1/1959	Yadin, Yigael	archeologist scientist			Israel	of Liberation ( good juxtaposition to DAYAN, YADIN describes himself upon request as an archeologist turned soldier). As chief of staff to quote him: "Some of the campaigns were inspired by the tactics described in the Bible, "YADIN of course being a bible expert. At the present he heads up the Department at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. for exact details, agge, corect descriptions and titles, etc. background, (check references or people as referred to in MOSHE DAYAN, 3039) IMPORTANT. Had difficulty in background photograph of YADIN. As he was unable to travel to his own digs we compromised at the following locations which are very old dig and historic sites. We mutually agreed it would be symbolic of the archeologist sites of Israel. Everywhere you turn new sites sre being discovered and worked. The location for the photograph is the burial caves on the edge of city of Jerusalem of the wealthy Jews of about 2000 years ago. The area is known as NECROPOLIS of the SANHEDRIN. YADIN's own description,"This site contains the burial caves of the 71 members of the SANHEDRIN, the highest Jewish Legislative and judicial body during the period of the second temple." These SANHEDRIN caves are actually about 100 yards from our photographic site. Though of the same period the SANHEDRIN were not built in the caves in our photograph, but these caves did contain the wealthy and aristocrats of the period. The hills in the background are in Jordanian possession and symbolically fighting took place here under the command of General YADIN to quote, "in which there were some of the fiercest battles of the war." YADIN is closely tied to the DEAD SEA SCROLLS. His father, DR. SKOLNICK first to discover their real character and value and YADIN worked with his father, also later arranging purchase and return to Israel of four scrolls and also	3040	Holiday Magazine				c

One year in Army, tank super Sherman, American made. The gun he holds is called UZI, semi-automatic, claimed to be the best of its kind in the world. Made in Israel. In describing it the soldiers laughed and said the gun was designed to take a real beating, just like the Sabras, and still work.	3041	Holiday Magazine		b		c

Lieutenant of the tank army, 23 years old, making army his career, "Sabra, of course." Was in Sinai campaign, Single. Address: TEL-HAI St. 33, RAMAT GAM. This soldier is typical of the vigorous, rough, tough, independent and surprisingly intellectual I found all over Israel. The soldiers, including women, have a independant and confident manner and they firmly believe, baring outside interference, that they can handle anything the Arabs have to offer.	3042	Holiday Magazine					c

This is a border Kibbutz and many of the people reef the worker-fighter group. In this kibbutz they have cattle and raise many types of crops including grapes. LEVI is a third generation Sabra, 21 years old, member of the NACHAL group. In kibbutz two years, single.	3044	Holiday Magazine		c			c
3201	8/1/1959	Rechter, Yaacov	architect	artist	Israel	35 years-old, 3 children. Photographed in front of the FREDRIC MANN Auditorium which he was associate architect with his father and two others. He initiated the basic designs however and is still working of the building. Worked on original sketches, then supervised all work since, etc. Other buildings he has designed are hospitals, homes, hotels all over Israel and civic centers in new cities. Studied at the TECHNION, and toured Europe and America on his own. Israeli trained entirely. The FREDERIC MANN Auditorium accomodates 3000. 2700 seats, 300 standees and phenomenally standees are always found there. Purely functional, is relieved by plastic effects and many visiting architects and others (including myself) consider it one of the most beautiful and functional in the world. Its acoustics are fantastic. Address: 8 Kikar Malchar Israel, Te-Aviv, Israel	3045	Holiday Magazine					c

3203	8/1/1959	ELIAHU SACHAROV	industrialist		Israel	Taken at the TAAL Factories at MISHMAROT (between Tel-Aviv and Haifa). He is managing director of these factories and part owner. Owned 1 quarter by he and his brothers, 1/4 by JOSEPH BUXANBAUM, and 1/2 by the Kibbutz MISHMAROT. The brothers came in when the kibbutz had twenty workers and locally constructed machinery and developed it to the point it will have at the time of publication, 700 employees, with big modern machinery, etc. It manufactures basically in four factories, plywood, bruce boxes (crates for exporting fruit etc.) particle boards for construction and decoration, and furniture. In 1949, SACHAROV at the age 33 (he is now 43) began to build up industry with his brothers and partners. He had just left the Israeli army where he was in management of military industry. The wood seen in the photograph is imported from Ghana and they export to many countries including the USA.	3047	Holiday Magazine		b

3204	8/1/1959	Bertini, Gary	musician			Israel	Born May 1, 1927. Taken inside the FREDERICK MANN Auditorium. with the Israeli Philharmonic amongst the instruments in rehearsal clothes. IMPORTANT: do not give impression he is conductor or director of the Israeli Philharmonic. He has conducted this body as a guest conductor many times and very successfully. One time taking over a series of ten concerts replacing DIMITRI MITROPOLIS when he became ill. From the ATTACHED BIOGRAPHY his musical life covers a large field, series composing for orchestra to theatre music, conducting and is particularly noted for his choir. Also, is an extremely likeable and popular man in Israel. Has just been invited to conduct in Washington Square this September and will probably have other engagements afterwards.	3048	Holiday Magazine		b
3205	8/1/1959	Shemi, Yehiel	artist	sculptor		Israel	Sculptor. 37 year old Sabra born in Haifa. Photographed where he lives and works in the kibbutz KABRI in the Galilee near Haifa. No academic training but studied under various sculptors in Israel and New York City. Unique working arrangement, only artist in Kibbutz. Kibbutz supplies him with all materials and tools, studio etc. and in return he turns over all income to them. Like all other members he receives a home, care and education for his children etc. Kibbutz raises crops, its fields are in the background. This kibbutz is famous as it was originally settled in the worst area of the Dead Sea, now in Jordan. Did experimental crop raising, settled in present location 1949. SHEMI joined at the age of 17. His sculpture originally stone, now entirely of a "welded metal school." Studied Martha Graham; acted Phile Playhouse TV and Stratford Shakespeare Festival (Conn.) Returned to Israel, she is a Sabra, where she apparently has become the leading young actress. Writes material for theatre clubs, radio - 15 part popular radio program, one of the three principles called Three Men in a Beat, short questions and answers, which are parodies and satires on familiar literary and Hollywood figures. So good was revived by John Crosby. A very colorful character. In this informal country he is informal to the point of excentricity. Has never been known to dress up, or wear a tie. Is photographed at his usual hang-out (a hold-over European custom), at the KASIT Cafe on DIZENGOFF street ( center of cafe life). This cafe is the meeting place of artists, actors, writers, intellectuals, etc. The owner being a patron of the arts. A column he wrote satirng Yael DAYAN's book got him in a big fight with the newspapers and currently a theatre club has a skit kidding about it.	3051	Holiday Magazine				c
